

DUBBO CHRISTIAN SCHOOL*STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MINISTRY

We understand your appointment to Dubbo Christian School as a ministry calling. Nonetheless there are a range of practical issues arising from that call to ministry. These Standard Terms and Conditions of Ministry seek to address those issues common to all staff within ministry at the school and form part of your employment arrangements and are to read in conjunction with your Letter of Offer.

1 FAITH BASIS OF APPOINTMENT

The ethos, aims and objects of a Christian school are based on:

- acceptance of the lordship of Christ; and
- acceptance of the Bible as the revealed Word of God.

Within Dubbo Christian School these are expounded in the:

- Statement of Faith,
- Core Values Statement,
- Educational Creed, and
- Staff Code of Conduct.

The Statement of Faith does not exhaust the extent of the beliefs of the school and its members. The Bible itself, as the inspired and infallible Word of God, that speaks with final authority concerning truth, morality, and the proper conduct of mankind, is the sole and final source of all that the school and its members believe.

For purposes of the Dubbo Christian School's faith, doctrine, practice, policy, and discipline, the school's Board is the final interpretive authority on the Bible's meaning and application provided that any such interpretation shall be consistent with the Statement of Faith.

You must support the school in these areas and set an example of personal conduct and deportment consistent with the school's beliefs and ethos as outlined in these documents. Your appointment is conditional upon you maintaining and demonstrating a continuing firm personal belief and lifestyle consistent with the school's Statement of Faith and the other documents listed above and attached to these terms, this being an essential condition of the appointment.

You are required to directly inform the Principal immediately should you cease to have a firm personal belief consistent with the Statement of Faith or act in a manner inconsistent with the above documents. You understand and accept that it is an inherent, genuine occupational requirement for you to:

- a. be seen to conduct yourself in the course of, or in connection with your work, in a manner consistent with these principles and beliefs and in accordance with the Christian ethics of the school, as contained and interpreted in these documents, thus providing a specifically Christian role model and example to all students and families associated within and outside the school community.
- b. not act in a way that you know, or ought reasonably to know, is contrary to the religious beliefs of the school. Nothing in your deliberate conduct shall be incompatible with the intrinsic character of the position.

- c. are required to regularly and frequently attend a Christian church (being a church holding a doctrinal position compatible with the Statement of Faith of the school) and to regularly and frequently participate in staff devotions and worship services held at the school.

The Principal or designated authority may terminate your employment summarily by written notice if you cease to meet any of these fundamental and essential requirements.

Berakah Christian Education Ltd

Preamble

This Statement of Faith actions what we believe as we engage in the task of Christian education. This is the faith on which our schools were founded. This is who we are. This is what we promote, practise and teach.

The Bible

The Bible is God's written infallible Word, His self-disclosure to human beings. God has spoken in the Scriptures, both Old and New Testaments, through the words of human authors. As the verbally inspired Word of God, the Bible is without error in the original writings, the complete revelation of His will for salvation, and the ultimate authority by which every realm of human knowledge and endeavour should be judged.

The Holy Scripture is the only source of Christian faith, to be believed in all that it teaches, obeyed in all that it requires, and trusted in all that it promises. ¹

God

We believe that there is one true living God, the infinite Designer, Creator and Sustainer of all existence, Himself sovereign and eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is holy, just, wise, loving and good. ²

The Lord Jesus Christ

We believe that Jesus Christ is God incarnate, the unique and only Son, Creator and Sustainer of all things; that He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary; that He lived a sinless life, died an atoning death, rose bodily from the dead; and ascended into heaven to the right hand of God the Father, from where He will come again personally in power and glory to gather a people to Himself, to judge all people and bring in the consummation of God's Kingdom. ³

God the Holy Spirit

We believe that God the Spirit is sent to convict the world of sin, righteousness and judgment and lead them to repentance; that He indwells believers as the guarantee of their inheritance; that He guides and empowers them, and gifts them for ministry according to the will of God. He brings forth His fruit in the lives of believers enabling them to serve God. ⁴

God's Plan for Life

We believe that all of human life is grounded in faith commitments. It is unfolded either as service to God or of a substitute for God. Sin alienates us from God and each other.

All have sinned, have fallen short of the standards of God, and are under God's judgement. God holds each person responsible and accountable for choices made and actions pursued. Human responsibility and accountability do not limit God's sovereignty. God's sovereignty does not diminish human responsibility and accountability. Salvation from the penalty of sin can only be found through our Lord Jesus Christ, through repentance from sin and faith in His substitutionary, atoning death and resurrection. ⁵

We believe that Adam and Eve were created male and female, in God's image to reflect His glory to the rest of creation, but they sinned when tempted by Satan. In union with Adam, human beings subsequently are sinners by nature and by choice, alienated from God, blinded to the glory and purpose of God by that sin, and under His wrath. ⁶

We believe that salvation from sin and access to God is by grace through faith in Jesus Christ alone; it is a free gift of God apart from any human goodness, works or religious ceremony. Salvation involves repentance for sin and turning to God by faith alone in the all-sufficient sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷

We believe that the church, of which Jesus is the Head, is made up of all those united with Him through the Holy Spirit, given to people by God upon salvation. ⁸

We believe that God established marriage as a union for life between a man and a woman, to the exclusion of all others, for companionship and intimacy, and as the rightful place for sexual activity and procreation. As God's image-bearers, humans were created, male and female, to live in relationship with our Creator, to love, serve, worship and enjoy Him forever as they faithfully exercise dominion, under God, through stewarding, caring for and enjoying God's creation. ⁹

We believe that, in obedience to Christ's commission, we are to make disciples among all people, always bearing witness to the gospel in word and deed. ¹⁰

Dubbo Christian School Policy

CODE OF CONDUCT - STAFF

RANGS Reference	3.6.2
Date of Last Review	February 2017
Board approval required	Yes
Owner	Principal

INTRODUCTION

The Dubbo Christian School Staff Code of Conduct guides all staff members (permanent, temporary and casual) in their consideration of ethical issues that may arise from their employment and indicates the school community's expected standards of behaviour.

It provides a Biblical basis for appropriate behaviour and allows each staff member to test whether a course of action is consistent with school expectations. Adherence to the Staff Code of Conduct will build up the school community so that students, according to the school motto, may indeed be "Learning in Truth".

Each member of staff has a God-given responsibility for his or her own behaviour and is accountable for individual behaviour decisions. Many such decisions have an impact on other staff members, on students and on families associated with the school. This code will help each staff member to make wise decisions about individual behaviour.

Paul encouraged the Colossian Christians, saying "lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God" (Colossians 1:10 NRSV). Accordingly, we should live to glorify and honour Christ, using our gifts and abilities to serve others, growing in our relationship with the living Lord.

Staff members of DCS help children to learn God's truth by using their gifts and displaying the fruit of the Spirit. Our relationships are typified by love and grace toward the other person. We demonstrate a daily witness of life and words before the children in our care, as well as the wider community.

This Code does not attempt to provide an exhaustive list of what to do in every aspect of work at DCS. It sets out general expectations of the standards of behaviour required.

Who must comply?

By accepting employment at DCS, all staff must be aware of and comply with this Code.

All staff must;

1. Conduct themselves, both personally and professionally in a manner that upholds the ethos and reputation of the School;
2. Comply with the School's policies and procedures;
3. Act ethically and responsibly; and
4. Be accountable for actions and decisions.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth" (Genesis 1:1).

God's act of creation demonstrates His love, sovereignty and our true place in creation. We must be aware of our submission to and relationship with God in all things.

God created people in His own image as the pinnacle of creation (refer Genesis 1:28).

We have some of God's attributes - the ability to relate and communicate, the ability to create, the ability to reflect and analyse, the ability to rule over other parts of creation, and the ability to submit to God. Our respect and responsibility for self, others and God's creation is based on being "in His own image".

"Sin entered the world through one man [Adam] and death through sin, and in this way death came to all men, because all sinned" (Romans 5:12).

We recognise that sin has affected all of us to some extent. This has damaged relationships with God and with each other. Even societal structures are tainted by the effects of sin. We also recognise that we naturally tend towards sinful actions.

"For Christ died for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to God" (1 Peter 3:18).

Through His death on the cross, Jesus has dealt with the penalty and power of sin, so that God's people are reconciled with Him as His children. We recognise that we are saved from sin by God's grace alone. Out of gratitude to and love for the Lord we are motivated to obey and to serve Him. We have God's Spirit who renews our minds, so that we are able to make godly, wise decisions for good purposes.

"His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms" (Ephesians 3:10).

We have an important role of making known God's wisdom. We have a partnership with parents to assist them as they raise their children "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4b). We are gifted by the Holy Spirit to assist parents in this task. We live in community, each performing our functions as part of a body. We serve the Lord and each other in an attitude of "other people centredness". We particularly seek to protect the vulnerable and support the less fortunate.

"In keeping with His promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, the home of righteousness...since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with Him." (2 Peter 3:13 -14).

The completion of God's work is yet to occur. Even though we are still in a broken, sinful world, we strive to live Godly lives in the anticipation of the fulfilment of God's plan and purposes.

In the light of God's creative and redemptive work in the world made complete in the gospel of Jesus Christ,
we are compelled to honour and glorify God in our lives and our relationships.

OUR STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT

We will never drive a student in our car unless we have specific permission from our supervisor or Principal or the student's parents to do so.

We understand and adhere to the Professional Boundaries with Students Procedure.

When a student is upset and we believe the student would be comforted by a hug, we would only do this in public view, preferably with another adult present and only when we reasonably believe that it is acceptable to or not uncomfortable for the child. We would always ask first, in a way that does not risk imposing our will on the child. The hug would not be prolonged or frequently repeated nor in a front on position. We will comply with internal policy or legislative requirements with respect to documentation of our actions or recordkeeping.

We report incidents of, or our suspicions of, fraud, corruption or maladministration, should they occur.

Where additional employment is undertaken, we will seek the approval of the Principal of the school and make a commitment to ensure that the effective discharge of our duty to the school is not affected.

We disclose the contents of any school documents or corporate information that has been supplied to, or seen by us to another party only if this is required in the course of our official duties as an employee.

We honour God by using resources wisely

We declare to the Principal conflicts of interest or potential conflicts of interest which we may have with any other stakeholders that may result in personal or financial benefit or may impede our proper judgement and decision making within our role.

We do not use either the facilities or any equipment of the School for our personal financial benefit.

¹⁰ See the Critical Incidents Policy.

We accept responsibility for our efficient and effective use of all physical, technical financial and human resources that God has provided to the school community. We will use these resources wisely, observing principles of godly stewardship, faithful service to God and the community, safety for ourselves and others and environmental responsibility.

We honour God by obeying policies, laws and regulations

We support and contribute to the school's compliance with applicable legislative and regulatory requirements through adherence to the policies and procedures of the school, and through awareness of and commitment to our personal responsibilities in these areas.

We honour God by accepting consequences for our actions

As we strive to adhere to this code, we realise that at times we may stumble. If we feel that we are stumbling, we know that we may seek in-confidence advice from our supervisors, who will serve us and strive to uphold us in our struggle to serve the Lord. However, our supervisors must act in the best interest of the school community and to this end, we must all accept responsibility for our own actions and their consequences.

If we breach this Code of Conduct we recognise that we may face disciplinary action (from warning to termination). Factors the school may consider when deciding what action to take may include;

- The seriousness of the breach
- The likelihood of the breach occurring again
- Whether the employee has committed the breach more than once
- The risk the breach poses to employees, students or others; and
- Whether the breach would be serious enough to warrant formal disciplinary action.

If after reasonable attempts by our leaders at management, training, reconciliation and remediation we cannot be restored to our position, we accept dismissal from our position and understand that in some instances legal action may be taken against us.

*Knowing all this “whatever (we) do, whether in word or deed,
(we) do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him” (Colossians 3:8)*

Berakah Christian Education Ltd manages the operations of Dubbo Christian School, Wellington Christian School and Dubbo Christian Preschool.

Correct as at 16/11/2021*

EDUCATIONAL CHARTER

This charter is a defining and enduring document that serves as a foundation and cornerstone with which the educational delivery of Dubbo Christian School, Wellington Christian School and Dubbo Christian Preschool will be aligned. By faith we believe the Bible to be the divinely inspired, inerrant¹ Word of God², the only absolute rule for faith and conduct³, and therefore also for the education of our children at home and at school. We acknowledge the centrality⁴ of Jesus Christ⁵ in all of life including education.

As open enrolment schools, we recognise that our student and parent communities include a variety of religious backgrounds and lifestyle beliefs. All who support our entitlement to our Statement of Faith are welcome in our schools. While we recognise the right of parents and students to hold different views on lifestyle or faith as private matters, it is important when joining our school communities that families understand what each school promotes, practises and teaches.

The special task of parents

Children are a gift from God⁶ and in His manifold⁷ wisdom, parents are mandated by God to bring their children up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord⁸. In accord with this Biblical responsibility, God has given parents authority over their children to guide and direct them in the way of righteousness⁹.

Parents have, therefore, the prime responsibility for the education of their children, including that part of their children's education which takes place outside the home. God has given children, on their part, a corresponding responsibility to honour, respect and obey their parents in the Lord.¹⁰

Accordingly, our schools will operate in such ways that parents may with integrity fulfil their responsibility under God. And our schools will educate students in a manner that is fully integrated with Biblical truth and the principles of Christian living.

The special task of our schools

Believing God has appointed parents with the responsibility for raising their children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord according to the Word of God, we understand a Christian school to be a legitimate educational institution.

Berakah Christian Education, as a parent-controlled community, exists to support parents in the Christ-centred, Biblically-based nurture and education of children. Thus, our schools operate in a dynamic partnership between parents and staff under the authority of God that recognises and safeguards the unique responsibility of parents.

Our schools are places where educational excellence, formational spiritual growth and maturity are pursued simultaneously, and where students are enabled to reach their fullest God-given capabilities. It becomes the special task of our schools to:

² 2 Timothy 3:16-17, 2 Peter 1:21

³ Psalm 19:7, Psalm 119:160, John 10:35; 17:17

⁴ The idea that Jesus, because of His birth, life, death, resurrection and ascension, is placed at the centre of every aspect of life

⁵ Colossians 1:15-17, Philippians 3:8-9

⁶ Psalm 127:3-5

⁷ Demonstrated in many ways

⁸ Deuteronomy 6:6-9; Ephesians 6:4

⁹ Proverbs 19:18

¹⁰ Ephesians 6:1-3, 1 Timothy 5:4, Colossians 3:20

- lead students, under the guidance of the Word of God, to discern the coherent purpose and structure of the creation in Christ;
- encourage students to consider the importance of committing their hearts to the truth and attaining understanding, wisdom and righteousness through Christ; and
- prepare and equip students in the life-long development and use of their God-given skills, talents and creativity to maximum potential, in fulfilling their unique calling in life in dedication to Christ as Lord.

In pursuit of their special task, each school will develop and deliver an education that builds a sense of each student's place in God's story, working towards redemption and restoration.

Within each school community, students are subject to the authority of the teacher which is to be upheld by the whole school community. It is never to be exercised or maintained for its own sake. In our schools it is only to be used for the effective nurture of students, in harmony with the special task of our schools and with an awareness that all authority is of God¹¹.

The authority and rights of parents in the education of their children are to be recognised. Our schools are not subject with regard to their special task to church, or state, or any outside authority in performing our special tasks. It is acknowledged that, while our schools are entitled to expect freedom from interference in their special task, they are still required to respect and uphold all legitimate authority. This includes the authority of family, church and state. Each should encourage this respect in the child.

Superannuation standard choice form

When to use the form

! Did you know you can complete this online?

Visit ato.gov.au/superchoiceform

About the form

The Standard choice form has three sections:

- Section A, which the employee completes by providing details of their choice of super fund, together with supporting documents.
- Section B, which the employer completes by providing details of their nominated super fund (before they give the form to an employee).
- Section C, which the employer completes to document the choice process for an employee.

Employers must retain the returned form as their record of the choice process. Completed forms must be retained for five years.

! Choosing a super fund

For more information about things to consider when choosing a super fund, visit moneysmart.gov.au and search for 'choosing a super fund'.

MySuper is a product type you can have with a super fund. It is the default product your employer will pay your super into, unless they need to pay to a different fund under the choice of fund rules. You can view and compare MySuper products by using the YourSuper comparison tool. Go to ato.gov.au/yoursuper, or log into ATO Online services through myGov to compare MySuper products.

Employers

Use this form to offer eligible employees their choice of super fund. You must fill in the details of your nominated super fund, also known as your default fund, before giving the form to employees.

Give this form to an employee when:

- you hire a new employee who is eligible to choose a super fund
- an existing eligible employee asks you for it
- you can no longer contribute to an employee's nominated super fund or it is no longer a complying fund
- you change your employer-nominated super fund and need to advise employees affected by this change.

Employees

Use this form to advise an employer of your choice of super fund.

You must provide the required information so your employer can make contributions to your nominated super fund.

! From 1 November 2021, if you start a new job and you do not advise your employer of your choice of super fund, your employer may need the ATO to identify if you have a 'stapled super fund'. A stapled super fund is an existing super account which is linked, or 'stapled', to you and follows you when you change jobs.

If you want to make sure your employer is paying into a particular fund, it's important that you complete this form and return it to your employer. You can complete an online version. To do this, log in to ATO online services through myGov and select 'new employment' from the Employment menu.

For more information on stapled super funds and making a choice visit ato.gov.au/superchoice

Section A: Employee to complete

If you choose your own super fund you will need to obtain current information from your fund to complete items 3 or 4.

Item 3

Nominating your APRA fund or RSA

Complete this item if you are nominating an APRA (Australian Prudential Regulation Authority) regulated fund or a retirement savings account (RSA).

You must include the unique superannuation identifier (USI) provided by your fund.

Your employer may choose not to accept this form if you do not provide all information requested and a letter from the fund trustee or RSA provider confirming that the fund or RSA:

- is a complying fund or RSA, and
- will accept payments from your employer.

This letter may contain other information to help your employer make super contributions using the SuperStream standard. Some funds may have a copy of this compliance letter and USI on their website. For other funds you will need to contact them to get this information.

Item 4

Nominating your self-managed super fund (SMSF)

Complete this item if you are nominating a self-managed super fund (SMSF).

You must include your SMSF's ABN, bank account details and electronic service address (ESA) (so the fund can receive electronic messages and payments from your employer using SuperStream).

Find out more

- ato.gov.au/Super/SuperStream – for information about how SuperStream applies to SMSF's

If you are using an SMSF message service provider they will provide you with an electronic service address alias to include as the ESA on the form.

You must attach copies of the following documents to support your SMSF choice:

- a document confirming the fund is regulated – this can be printed from superfundlookup.gov.au
- a letter from the trustee of the SMSF confirming that the fund will accept payments from your employer – if you are the trustee, or a director of the corporate trustee, you can confirm acceptance by placing an 'X' in the relevant box on the form.

Things you should know

- Your employer is not liable for the performance of the super fund you or they nominate.
- You should not seek financial advice from your employer unless they are licensed to provide it.
- From 1 November 2021, if you start a new job where you are eligible to make a choice and you do not advise your employer of your choice of super fund, your employer may need to ask the ATO to identify if you already have a super account. The ATO will notify you if this happens.
- You can request a change to the fund your employer pays your super into at any time by filling out this form and returning it to your employer. When you return this form to your employer, they will have two months to action your request. If you are a new employee from 1 November 2021, and your employer must contribute before this time, if they don't pay to your choice fund, your employer may pay into your 'stapled super fund' or their employer nominated account if the ATO advises them you do not have a stapled super fund.
- Your employer is only required to accept one choice of fund from you in a 12-month period; however, they may choose to accept more.
- Any money you have in existing funds will remain there unless you arrange to transfer it (roll it over) to another fund – before you transfer your super, consider any impacts, including loss of insurance, fund performance or any fees or charges you may incur. If unsure, you may want to seek independent financial advice.
- If you quote your TFN to your employer for super purposes, they must provide it to the super fund.

You may have lost super

- It is important to keep track of your super – if you've ever changed your name, address or job, you may have lost track of some of your super.
- Having multiple super accounts could mean you are paying fees you are unaware of, which could reduce your retirement savings. Your super is your money, you should check it regularly.
- You can manage your super using ATO online services through myGov. This will enable you to view details of all your super accounts, including any you may have lost track of. You can use ATO online services to consolidate eligible multiple accounts. Before consolidating any accounts, consider impacts such as insurance, fees, and fund performance.

An employer is authorised to collect an employee's TFN under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993. It is not an offence for an employee not to quote their TFN. Tax file number declaration

Information you provide in this declaration will allow your payer to work out how much tax to withhold from payments made to you.

— This is not a TFN application form.
To apply for a TFN, go to ato.gov.au/tfn

! Terms we use

When we say:

- payer, we mean the business or individual making payments under the pay as you go (PAYG) withholding system
- payee, we mean the individual being paid.

Who should complete this form?

You should complete this form before you start to receive payments from a new payer – for example:

- payments for work and services as an employee, company director or office holder
- payments under return-to-work schemes, labour hire arrangements or other specified payments
- benefit and compensation payments
- superannuation benefits.

! You need to provide all information requested on this form. Providing the wrong information may lead to incorrect amounts of tax being withheld from payments made to you.

! You don't need to complete this form if you:

- are a beneficiary wanting to provide your tax file number (TFN) to the trustee of a closely held trust. For more information, visit ato.gov.au/trustsandtfnwithholding
- are receiving superannuation benefits from a super fund and have been taken to have quoted your TFN to the trustee of the super fund
- want to claim the seniors and pensioners tax offset by reducing the amount withheld from payments made to you. You should complete a withholding declaration form (NAT 3093)
- want to claim a zone, overseas forces or invalid and invalid carer tax offset by reducing the amount withheld from payments made to you. You should complete a withholding declaration form (NAT 3093).

> For more information about your entitlement, visit ato.gov.au/taxoffsets

Section A: To be completed by the payee

Question 1

What is your tax file number (TFN)?

You should give your TFN to your employer only after you start work for them. Never give your TFN in a job application or over the internet.

- We and your payer are authorised by the Taxation Administration Act 1953 to request your TFN. It's not an offence not to quote your TFN. However, quoting your TFN reduces the risk of administrative errors and having extra tax withheld. Your payer is required to withhold the top rate of tax from all payments made to you if you do not provide your TFN or claim an exemption from quoting your TFN.

How do you find your TFN?

You can find your TFN on any of the following:

- your income tax notice of assessment
- correspondence we send you
- a payment summary your payer issues to you.

If you have a tax agent, they may also be able to tell you.

If you still can't find your TFN, you can:

- phone us on 13 28 61 between 8.00am and 6.00pm, Monday to Friday.

If you phone or visit us, we need to know we are talking to the correct person before discussing your tax affairs. We will ask you for details only you, or your authorised representative, would know.

You don't have a TFN

If you don't have a TFN and want to provide a TFN to your payer, you will need to apply for one.

For more information about applying for a TFN, visit ato.gov.au/tfn

You may be able to claim an exemption from quoting your TFN.

Print X in the appropriate box if you:

- have lodged a TFN application form or made an enquiry to obtain your TFN. You now have 28 days to provide your TFN to your payer, who must withhold at the standard rate during this time. After 28 days, if you haven't given your TFN to your payer, they will withhold the top rate of tax from future payments
- are claiming an exemption from quoting a TFN because you are under 18 years of age and do not earn enough to pay tax, or you are an applicant or recipient of certain pensions, benefits or allowances from the:
 - Department of Human Services – however, you will need to quote your TFN if you receive a Newstart, Youth or sickness allowance, or an Austudy or parenting payment
 - Department of Veterans' Affairs – a service pension under the Veterans' Entitlement Act 1986
 - Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Commission.

Providing your TFN to your super fund

Your payer must give your TFN to the super fund they pay your contributions to. If your super fund doesn't have your TFN, you can provide it to them separately. This ensures:

- your super fund can accept all types of contributions to your accounts
- additional tax will not be imposed on contributions as a result of failing to provide your TFN
- you can trace different super accounts in your name.

- For more information about providing your TFN to your super fund, visit ato.gov.au/superelegibility

Question 2–6

Complete with your personal information.

Question 7

On what basis are you paid?

Check with your payer if you're not sure.

Question 8

Are you an Australian resident for tax purposes or a working holiday maker?

Generally, we consider you to be an Australian resident for tax purposes if you:

- have always lived in Australia or you have come to Australia and now live here permanently
- are an overseas student doing a course that takes more than six months to complete
- migrate to Australia and intend to reside here permanently.

If you go overseas temporarily and don't set up a permanent home in another country, you may continue to be treated as an Australian resident for tax purposes.

If you are in Australia on a working holiday visa (subclass 417) or a work and holiday visa (subclass 462) you must place an X in the working holiday maker box. Special rates of tax apply for working holiday makers.

- For more information about working holiday makers, visit ato.gov.au/whm

If you're not an Australian resident for tax purposes or a working holiday maker, place an X in the foreign resident box, unless you are in receipt of an Australian Government pension or allowance.

Temporary residents can claim super when leaving Australia, if all requirements are met. For more information, visit ato.gov.au/departaustralia

— Foreign resident tax rates are different

A higher rate of tax applies to a foreign resident's taxable income and foreign residents are not entitled to a tax-free threshold nor can they claim tax offsets to reduce withholding, unless you are in receipt of an Australian Government pension or allowance.

- To check your Australian residency status for tax purposes or for more information, visit ato.gov.au/residency

Question 9

Do you want to claim the tax-free threshold from this payer?

The tax-free threshold is the amount of income you can earn each financial year that is not taxed. By claiming the threshold, you reduce the amount of tax that is withheld from your pay during the year.

Answer yes if you want to claim the tax-free threshold, you are an Australian resident for tax purposes, and one of the following applies:

- you are not currently claiming the tax-free threshold from another payer
- you are currently claiming the tax-free threshold from another payer and your total income from all sources will be less than the tax-free threshold.

Answer yes if you are a foreign resident in receipt of an Australian Government pension or allowance.

Answer no if none of the above applies or you are a working holiday maker.

- ! If you receive any taxable government payments or allowances, such as Newstart, Youth Allowance or Austudy payment, you are likely to be already claiming the tax-free threshold from that payment.
- > For more information about the current tax-free threshold, which payer you should claim it from, or how to vary your withholding rate, visit ato.gov.au/taxfreethreshold

Question 10

Do you have a Higher Education Loan Program (HELP), VET Student Loan (VSL), Financial Supplement (FS), Student Start-up Loan (SSL) or Trade Support Loan (TSL) debt?

Answer yes if you have a HELP, VSL, FS, SSL or TSL debt.

Answer no if you do not have a HELP, VSL, FS, SSL or TSL debt, or you have repaid your debt in full.

- ! You have a HELP debt if either:
 - the Australian Government lent you money under HECS-HELP, FEE-HELP, OS-HELP, VET FEE-HELP, VET Student loans prior to 1 July 2019 or SA-HELP.
 - you have a debt from the previous Higher Education Contribution Scheme (HECS).

You have a SSL debt if you have an ABSTUDY SSL debt.

You have a separate VSL debt that is not part of your HELP debt if you incurred it from 1 July 2019.
- > For information about repaying your HELP, VSL, FS, SSL or TSL debt, visit ato.gov.au/getloaninfo

Have you repaid your HELP, VSL, FS, SSL or TSL debt?

When you have repaid your HELP, VSL, FS, SSL or TSL debt, you need to complete a Withholding declaration (NAT 3093) notifying your payer of the change in your circumstances.

! Sign and date the declaration

Make sure you have answered all the questions in section A, then sign and date the declaration. Give your completed declaration to your payer to complete section B.

Payer information

The following information will help you comply with your pay as you go (PAYG) withholding obligations.

Is your employee entitled to work in Australia?

It is a criminal offence to knowingly or recklessly allow someone to work, or to refer someone for work, where that person is from overseas and is either in Australia illegally or is working in breach of their visa conditions.

People or companies convicted of these offences may face fines and/or imprisonment. To avoid penalties, ensure your prospective employee has a valid visa to work in Australia before you employ them. For more information and to check a visa holder's status online, visit the Department of Home Affairs website at homeaffairs.gov.au

Is your payee working under a working holiday visa (subclass 417) or a work and holiday visa (subclass 462)?

Employers of workers under these two types of visa need to register with the ATO, see ato.gov.au/whmreg

For the tax table "working holiday maker" visit our website at ato.gov.au/taxtables

Payer obligations

If you withhold amounts from payments, or are likely to withhold amounts, the payee may give you this form with section A completed. A TFN declaration applies to payments made after the declaration is provided to you. The information provided on this form is used to determine the amount of tax to be withheld from payments based on the PAYG withholding tax tables we publish. If the payee gives you another declaration, it overrides any previous declarations.

Has your payee advised you that they have applied for a TFN, or enquired about their existing TFN?

Where the payee indicates at question 1 on this form that they have applied for an individual TFN, or enquired about their existing TFN, they have 28 days to give you their TFN. You must withhold tax for 28 days at the standard rate according to the PAYG withholding tax tables. After 28 days, if the payee has not given you their TFN, you must then withhold the top rate of tax from future payments, unless we tell you not to.

If your payee has not given you a completed form you must:

- notify us within 14 days of the start of the withholding obligation by completing as much of the payee section of the form as you can. Print 'PAYER' in the payee declaration and lodge the form – see 'Lodging the form'.
- withhold the top rate of tax from any payment to that payee.

For a full list of tax tables, visit our website at ato.gov.au/taxtables

Lodging the form

You need to lodge TFN declarations with us within 14 days after the form is either signed by the payee or completed by you (if not provided by the payee). You need to retain a copy of the form for your records. For information about storage and disposal, see below.

You may lodge the information:

- online – lodge your TFN declaration reports using software that complies with our specifications. There is no need to complete section B of each form as the payer information is supplied by your software.
- by paper – complete section B and send the original to us within 14 days.

For more information about lodging your TFN declaration report online, visit our website at ato.gov.au/lodgetfndeclaration

Provision of payee's TFN to the payee's super fund

If you make a super contribution for your payee, you need to give your payee's TFN to their super fund on the day of contribution, or if the payee has not yet quoted their TFN, within 14 days of receiving this form from your payee.

Storing and disposing of TFN declarations

The TFN Rule issued under the Privacy Act 1988 requires a TFN recipient to use secure methods when storing and disposing of TFN information. You may store a paper copy of the signed form or electronic files of scanned forms. Scanned forms must be clear and not altered in any way.

If a payee:

- submits a new TFN declaration (NAT 3092), you must retain a copy of the earlier form for the current and following financial year.
- has not received payments from you for 12 months, you must retain a copy of the last completed form for the current and following financial year.

Penalties

You may incur a penalty if you do not:

- lodge TFN declarations with us
- keep a copy of completed TFN declarations for your records
- provide the payee's TFN to their super fund where the payee quoted their TFN to you.

Your pay

Your minimum pay rates are in your award or enterprise agreement. If there isn't an award or agreement for your job, you must get at least the National Minimum Wage. Minimum pay rates are usually updated yearly.

Find out what you should get at fairwork.gov.au/minimum-wages

Flexibility

After 12 months employment, you may have the right to make a written request for flexible working arrangements. This includes if you're pregnant, 55 or over, a carer, have a disability, are experiencing family and domestic violence, are supporting a member of your immediate family or household who is experiencing family and domestic violence, or are the parent of, or have caring responsibilities for, a child of school age or younger. Employers need to follow certain rules for responding to a request for flexible working arrangements, including responding in writing within 21 days. Find out more about the rules for flexible working arrangements at fairwork.gov.au/flexibility

You and your employer can also negotiate an individual flexibility arrangement. This would change how certain terms in your award or enterprise agreement apply to you. An individual flexibility arrangement must be a genuine choice, it can't be a condition of employment. The arrangement must leave you better off overall.

Right of entry

Union officials with an entry permit can enter the workplace to talk to workers that they're entitled to represent. They can also enter to investigate suspected safety issues or breaches of workplace laws.

They must comply with certain requirements, such as notifying the employer, and can inspect or copy certain documents. Strict privacy rules apply to the permit holder and their organisation. They also apply to your employer. The rules protect your personal information. Find out more about entry permits at fwc.gov.au/entry-permits

Agreement making

Employers and employees (or their representatives, like a union) can negotiate for an agreement for their workplace. This process is called 'bargaining' and must follow set rules. The Fair Work Commission checks and approves agreements.

For information about making, varying, or terminating an enterprise agreement visit fwc.gov.au/agreements

Transfer of business

If a transfer of business occurs, your employment with your old employer ends. If you're employed by the new employer within 3 months to do the same (or similar) job, some of your entitlements might carry over. This may happen if, for example, the business is sold or work is outsourced.

Find out about the rules for a transfer of business at fairwork.gov.au/transfer-of-business

Protections at work

All employees have protections at work. You can't be treated differently or worse because you have or exercise a workplace right. For example, the right to request flexible working arrangements, take leave, or make a complaint or enquiry about your employment.

You have the right to join a union or choose not to, and to take part in lawful industrial activity or choose not to.

You have the right to talk about (or not talk about) your current or past pay. You can also discuss the terms and conditions of employment that would be needed to work out your pay, such as your hours of work. You can also ask other employees about their pay and terms and conditions of employment, but they don't have to tell you.

You have protections when you're temporarily away from work due to illness or injury. You are also protected from discrimination, bullying, sexual harassment, coercion, misrepresentation, sham contracting, and undue influence or pressure. Find out more about your protections at work at fairwork.gov.au/protections

Find information about bullying and harassment at fairwork.gov.au/bullying-harassment

Ending employment

When your employment ends, your final pay should include all outstanding entitlements. This includes wages, unused annual leave and long service leave.

You may be entitled to notice of termination, or pay instead of notice. If you're dismissed for serious misconduct, you're not entitled to notice. If you resign you may have to give your employer notice. You can check if notice is required and what should be in your final pay.

Visit fairwork.gov.au/ending-employment

If you think your dismissal was unfair or unlawful, you have 21 calendar days to lodge a claim with the Fair Work Commission. Rules and exceptions apply. Find out more about unfair dismissal at fwc.gov.au
